Dear Friends

Here is something for you to chew on after the Brussels sprouts.

According to St Luke's Gospel it all began with a census. When the Emperor Octavian, who had given himself the god-like title Augustus, was ruling over his vast empire and Quirinius was one of his officials in a very remote but significant part of that same empire, a census was held. Almost certainly it was for the purpose of assessing exactly how much tax could be levied and on whom. Although there wouldn't have been much public debate about interpreting the census returns, there may well have been some discussion among the emperor's policy makers about how to make best use of the conclusions.

Since then governments have developed very substantial bureaucracies to enable them to gather accurate information about citizens. This information is used to "inform" how policies are made in relation to virtually everything under the sun - health provision, education, social policy in relation to marriage and the family etc. It is called "evidence based" policy formation. However anyone who has ever read over the transcript of the evidence given in a court case will know that interpreting what evidence means can be a very complex and uncertain matter.

We are very used to reading surveys about the decline of religious belief and practice in Western Europe. That can have a rather demoralising effect on us as believers but it can also lead planners and policy makers to conclusions that may not entirely respect the nuances of the figures.

I don't have the relevant figures for Northern Ireland to hand but the most recent census (2016) in the Republic of Ireland showed that 79% of people claimed to be Roman Catholics with 10% ticking the box for "no religion". Both figures are probably slightly exaggerated in the sense that there will be those who claim to be Catholic but who have only a very tenuous cultural link with the church and there will be those who ticked the "no religion" box who are not thorough going atheists or secular humanists.

What is very striking about the census returns (as has been pointed out in a paper written by an academic in St. Mary's University, Twickenham) is that religion and Christianity in particular continues to lay a very significant role in Irish society. This is all the more true as small new church groups (usually very active and committed) are under reported in the census.

In fact what this most recent census analysis shows is that 36% of Irish people attend church at least weekly.

Perhaps even more significant is that this figure has been stable since 2010.

In an even more recent survey known as the European Social Survey which is conducted every two years across 18 European countries it is clear that Ireland is one of the most religious countries in Europe, second only to Poland.

I am not saying that this means there is no work for the churches to do by way of deepening our faith and also spreading it, but it should be comfort to us that, despite the daily drip of bad news stories and forecasts of utter doom about the church, that many people are still with us. Some may be fully committed and some may be holding on by their fingertips but there is still something about the good news of Jesus and the witness to that by his Church which has an appeal for very many people.

As many young people, and some older ones return home over the Christmas period our churches will be much fuller than normal.

Let us make sure that everyone who comes to worship and to encounter the love and the holiness of God in the Christ-child has every chance to be aware that love came down at Christmas and that holiness is a gift to them in the person of Jesus Christ who in baptism took them as his brothers and sisters and inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Mothers' Union

A special event to mark the first
Mothers' Union branch in Clogher
Diocese took place on Tuesday, 7th
November at Clontibret Parish Church. A tree was planted in the church grounds in recognition that Clontibret Parish was the first parish to have a Mothers' Union branch in the Clogher Diocese.
Lovely refreshments in the church hall kicked off the event and then the Rector led prayers outside before the tree was officially planted by the All-Ireland President, Phyllis Grothier who travelled from Carlow for the special event.
Thank you to our Diocesan President, Irene Boyd who spoke at the event and also thank you to Jennifer Leathem for organising the tree and the ladies of Clontibret for putting on such a beautiful tea. Also thanks to Ethel Coulter for speaking at the event and continuing to lead the Mothers' Union for this group of parishes. A very kind letter was received by Liane Armstrong thanking everyone for taking part in the event.
Mothers' Union members in the Ballybay Group met in Clontibret Church Hall at 8pm, on Wednesday, 15th November, where Lorna Soden, local ICA President, led a craft evening. Everyone took along a book which was then used to demonstrate how to turn your book into a book fold in the shape of a hedgehog!
A great evening was had by all and refreshments were served afterwards.

Warmest Congratulations

Warmest congratulations to Suzanne and Darren Tate on their recent marriage on Friday 27th October.

The service took place in St Mary's Church, Threemilehouse. It was a very joyous occasion and it was also a very ecumenical ceremony where Fr Adrain Walshe and Revd Neal performed the wedding service together. Celebrations continued in the Manor House Hotel, Enniskillen and the Rector and Mrs Lucy Phair joined with the happy couple for the celebrations. We wish them health and happiness and God's richest blessing for the years ahead.

Carol Service

Our Carol Service will be on Sunday, 10th December at 3.30pm when the children and teachers from our National School will play a major part in the service. We look forward to their message and ministry to us as we celebrate the birth of our Saviour. Everyone is invited for light refreshment after the service.

We continue to pray for all those who have been bereaved or who are feeling lonely or unwell at this time. We remember especially Esther Dunne and Jim and Robert Graham. We ask for God's Richest Blessings on them all and trust that they will know his love and comfort in their adversity. We pray for our children and our students and all our parishioners that they will know the Love and Grace of our Heavenly Father and give him Thanks and Praise. Clontibret members of the Mothers' Union (MU) were delighted to host a coffee morning on Tuesday, 7th October when fellow members and friends from across the Diocese came along to celebrate 130 years of the MU in Ireland. Mrs Phyllis Grothier, All Ireland MU President, who had travelled from Co Carlow that morning planted a mountain ash tree to mark the opening of the first branch of the Mother's Union (MU) in the Diocese of Clogher in 1900 at Clontibret. Mrs Ethel Coulter, Enrolling Member and Mrs Irene Boyd, Clogher Diocesan President welcomed members and Revd Neal Phair led prayer. We were blessed with a beautiful sunny morning and everyone enjoyed the occasion. As we look forward to 2018 we are pleased to announce a Country Gospel evening with Kenny Archer and friends at 7.45pm on Friday, 9th March. Kenny will be joined by local talent and everyone can be assured of an evening of ministry through music and song.

take place on Saturday, 18th November in St Patrick's Church where the Rector was to welcome Fr Eoin to Ballybay on behalf of the Protestant Churches in the town and locally.

Following on from our Confirmation in November we are delighted to be starting a new youth fellowship group for our young people of confirmation age and above. Our first time together will be for a Christmas Special on Wednesday 13th December from 6.30pm in the Parish Room at St Finbarr's. There will be lots of madcap Christmas games, some worship and Christmas goodies. We are looking forward to this exciting new group growing over the coming years.

Prayer Meeting

As we seek to pray for one another and for our church particularly that we will grow in faith, numbers, unity and love. We meet on the first Monday of each month with our next meeting on Monday 4th December at 8.00pm in the Rectory. There will be no prayer meeting in January.

Ecumenical Carol Service

We are pleased to be once again holding an Ecumenical Carol Service in Carrickmacross following a gap of a few years. This year's service will take place on Thursday 21st December at 8.00pm in St Finbarr's. There will be a lot of congregational singing as well as pieces by our choir. Members of St Joseph's Roman Catholic Church will also be taking part with Father Larry bringing our address.

Christmas Nativity And Children's Party

Practice is already underway for our Christmas Nativity on Sunday 17th December in St Finbarr's. We are looking forward to having all our children take part on this very special service in our church year. Our new choir will also complement our worship.

Our Children's party will follow the service and all young families are invited to come along.

Gifts For The Women's Shelter

At our three Carol Services this year we are asking people to bring along the gift of a toy or women's toiletries that will be donated to our local women's shelter. We have chosen the shelter as our charity for Harvest and Easter this year and they were very grateful for the gifts of non-perishable foods we collected at our Harvest Services.

Cleenish & Mullaghduin Mothers' Union

Cleenish and Mullaghduin members send greetings and congratulations to Shirley Sheridan who recently celebrated her 80th birthday. Shirley remains a faithful member, and when visited on her birthday was baking cakes for the annual cake sale the following evening.

On Tuesday 14th November, Cleenish Branch held their Annual Cake Sale and Supper Event. Thanks to all the members who made this evening possible.

Congratulations to Malcom Cathcart who guessed the name of our knitted scarecrow “Isabella”. Funds raised will enable the Branch to give generously to the Mothers' Union Relief Fund. Members had the opportunity to participate in making Christmas floral arrangements and enjoyed a demonstration by a local artist on Tuesday 21st November in Mullaghduin Parish Hall.

Next meeting will be held in Cleenish on Tuesday 16th January, with an Opening Communion Service to celebrate the theme for 2018 “In Mary Sumner's Footsteps”. The Programme for 2018 will be available late December.

Cleenish Brownies

Brownies continue in Cleenish Parish Hall, and recently attended the Remembrance Service in St John's, Florencecourt.

The Pack finish the present term on Wednesday 6th December, and recommence towards the end of January. New girls aged 7 to 11 years will be made most welcome on Wednesday evenings from 6:30pm until 7:45pm.

Cleenish Mother & Toddler Group

The Group remains busy following the mid-term break, however there are places remaining should parents wish to enrol their child. A big thank you to all parents who generosity supported the Mothers' Union cake sale on Tuesday morning 14th November.

Mother and Toddler will close for the Christmas break on Tuesday 12th

December following the traditional morning at the movies, and reopens on Tuesday 16th January.

Welcome

Both Parishes extend a welcome to the Revd Ruth West as Incumbent to the Florencecourt Group of Parishes, Diocese of Kilmore. These Parishes form its boundary along our western side.

Thanks

It is normal at this time of year to thank those from both Parishes, who have worked so hard to keep both graveyards in good order, both by grass cutting and collecting leaves.

Illness

As we are about to celebrate this Christmas season, we pray for those in both Parishes who are ill or in distress at this time, and ask God to protect them in their hour of need.

Bereavement

Lizzie Orr was born and reared in Toneyteigue, Bellanaleck. After the death of her parents, she moved with her brother Johnny and sister Sarah to Windmill Heights, Enniskillen. In later life Lizzie spent a period in Barbour Court, before moving to the Millcroft Nursing Home. She passed away peacefully on Friday 3rd November, and after a service in Rossorry Parish Church conducted by Canon Ian Ellis, she was interred in the family plot in Cleenish Parish Churchyard.

Cleenish Centre

The Centre is now completing its 8th year, we realise so much more could be done

if we had volunteers offering to serve the Lord in this place.

The potential for growth is great, and we look forward to Year 9 for which bookings have already been received.

We trust that all will have a good Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

Bellanaleck Local History Group

Congratulations to the above Group who won the Northern Ireland heat at the Regional Awards Ceremony at the Grand Opera House in Belfast, on Tuesday 7th November. Organised by the Ulster Architectural Heritage Society, the awards aim to celebrate the "unsung heroes" of local heritage. The Bellanaleck Group was nominated for their 'Making It Home' project, the incredibly moving story of a group of battle-scarred ex-servicemen who were re-settled on Cleenish Island in County Fermanagh at the end of the First World War. The Group then moved forward and represented Northern Ireland at the national awards in the Palace Theatre, London on Monday 20th November.

Bellanaleck Community Group

The Group held their usual monthly meeting on Wednesday 25th October. At the commencement of proceedings, all present stood in silence as a mark of respect following the death of the late Mervyn Willis. Sympathy had previously been sent to his wife Florence, daughters Janet and Sharon, and the entire family circle.

Bulb planting in the Community Garden was then discussed, and it was noted a large number of various bulbs will be planted in the near future. Members were briefed by the Chairman that a new interpretative panel had recently been erected at the entrance road to The Moorings, thus giving a clear guidance from a point at its northern side, as to the layout of the Loughshore Path. Thanks again to the staff in FODC. Suggested items were then discussed by the Secretary, as to what facilities within the Village should be printed on a new Community Information Panel to be erected early in the New Year. The annual Children's Party which is booked for Saturday afternoon 9th December was then discussed at length, and it was agreed will be held on similar lines as in previous years. Next monthly meeting Wednesday 24th January.

Mothers' Union

The October meeting of Clogher Cathedral group of Parishes Mothers' Union was held in the Carmichael Memorial Hall, Augher. Mrs Iris Moffett, Branch Leader, welcomed visitors from neighbouring women's organisations as well as our own members. She introduced Mrs Nina Wright from the Salvation Army in Enniskillen and her friend Margaret. Using a projector and screen Nina gave a very detailed account that in 1865 a Christian Mission was started in the East End of London. Later the name was changed to the Salvation Army. Mens' Hostels were set up, also soup kitchens. William Booth the founder was responsible for the introduction of the safety matches. Today they work in 128 countries where they provide help in different material ways as well as spiritual.

Mrs Jean Bell thanked the speaker for her excellent talk. After supper and the visitors had left, a short business meeting was held. The minutes of September were read and passed. Iris reminded members of the Autumn Council Meeting in Dromore on 28th October and also the Christmas meal in the Courthouse, Clogher in November. Menus for the meal were given to the members by the secretary. The meeting ended with the Grace.

Remembrance Sunday

The annual service of remembrance was a dignified and humbling occasion as parishioners gathered to pay homage to those who gave their lives in World Wars, subsequent wars, conflicts and through the years of terrorism. Wreathes were laid by representatives of the RUCGC, UDRCGC, LOL, followed by the children who placed their poppies as they paid silent tribute to the fallen. A special mention of the 30th anniversary of the murder of Jim Oldman, and the Enniskillen atrocity amongst the many other terrorist atrocities anniversaries. A poem entitled 'The Memory, The Hurt, The Hope' was read by Mrs Rosemary Barton, MLA which recognised the lived experiences of innocent victims of terrorism, noting that its composition was by the rector. We express thanks to all who contributed to the service, organist, choir, piper, IT and those who laid the poppy wreathes and delivered the Ode to the Fallen.

Young people from the parish at Autumn Soul.

The Memory, The Hurt, The Hope

*Time it passes quickly
But the memory is still as real
Of the horrors of the past
The actions of evil men*

*They robbed us of our loved ones
With no care to how we'd feel
The loss, the trauma and the pain,
It matter naught to them*

*No thought for the grieving widow,
Nor the cry of a weeping child
The heart broken husband
Or how a family would survive*

*Their actions were horrendous
No different now as then
But the greatest, betrayal
When they lauded evil men*

*We've lived with broken promises
The hollow, empty words
The insensitivities of others
With their scornful, mocking voice*

*Truth and justice decimated
No longer a key desire
They'd rather see the terrorist
In the corridors of power*

*Trust not in man, the Psalmist's cry
But in God whose justice will prevail
Therein His judgement will be final
For all will be revealed*

*We rest in His unfailing love
And underneath, His everlasting arms
He guides us through the storms of life
No longer can they harm
But for the terrorist and unrepentant
Their joy, an everlasting flame
For those who know and love the Lord
A home beyond the veil.*

There was an attendance of about 40 members at the meeting held on 25th October. This included our own members, the Work Group who were involved with the "Days for Girls" project, also visitors from Colaghty Parish as well as ladies from the Methodist Church. Diane Graham of CMS Ireland and Niamh Peach were the speakers and they recounted their experiences in the Refugee Camps in Uganda last July. Mrs Avril Stubbs presented Diane with 38 packs for "Days for Girls" (www.daysforgirls.org) that had been expertly made by the members of the Work Group. These will be distributed when Diane travels to Juba (Republic of South Sudan) in July 2018.

Christian Burial

On Monday 30th October 2017 the Funeral Service for Frederick James Kettyles, 20 Killyreagh Road, Tamlaght, took place in the parish church of St Tighernach, Derryvullen South, followed by interment in the adjoining churchyard. Freddie, as he was commonly called, was born on Tuesday 31st January 1939 to William and Sarah Kettyles of Feagh. He attended Newtownbutler and Littlemount schools before the family moved to Coolcannel, Maguiresbridge. He was one of a family of nine children. Sadly he was predeceased by four of his brothers, William, John, Herbie and Eric. His working life revolved around driving which he must have loved because he did all the driving even on the family holidays to Portrush and Scotland. He first of all drove for Gracey Brothers, butter and egg merchants, then the Education Board School Bus and finally Webtec where he occasionally proudly drove the boss's Mercedes on long trips to the South. He met Kathleen Boles and they were married on 11th September 1971 in Darling Street Methodist Church, Enniskillen. Keith and William arrived and his life revolved around the family. Later the grandchildren came along and, as with all grandparents, this brought great pleasure and pride. Freddie was always there and many people are still coming to terms with the disbelief that he is no longer with us. For years, at the annual parish auction he was in the middle of it all in the weeks leading up to the event, packing bags with logs. He was part of the team in those days who mowed the graveyard grass and as Rector's Churchwarden not only in Canon Frazer's time but also in Chancellor Stewart's time, he was a most loyal and dependable churchman. Being churchwarden he was a member of the select vestry involved in looking after the furnishing, fabrics and finance of the parish. This meant those extra duties of opening the church, checking the heating and so on not only on Sundays but on other occasions. It is a demanding position which Freddie carried out with great diligence and dependability. His active and loyal membership of the select vestry lasted for 26 years. In spite of his increasing difficulty with walking, he was at church every Sunday settling in to his pew well before the service began. He enjoyed the Derryvullen Bowling Club of which he was a very keen member winning a number of prizes, and outside the Church he was a loyal member of Tamlaght Orange Lodge and Maguiresbridge Black Preceptory. He enjoyed quizzes and crosswords, listening to Hugo Duncan on the radio and watching snooker and nature programmes on television. He was a quiet private man who was very content in his own corner. While he did travel abroad very occasionally, he was never happier than when he was at his own home at Tamlaght. In his address, the rector acknowledged his own family's debt to Freddie for his help in different ways, not least looking after the various dogs they had over the years, enabling them to go on holiday. On more than one occasion Freddie acted as the rector's chauffeur.

Freddie was always the same, always pleasant, totally reliable, honest and dedicated, and without guile. There were no airs or graces. No pretention. The family was his life.

Thirty years ago in his forties he had major heart surgery and further major surgery in more recent times. His most recent visit to our local hospital sadly did not result in any improvement and in spite of the valiant efforts of the medical team working round the clock for two weeks there was only a gradual decline in his condition. The family pay tribute to the staff of the SWAH Cardiac and Critical Care Units. Freddie's passing leaves a large void in the family and our thoughts and prayers are with his wife Kathleen, sons Keith and William, daughters in law, Lorraine and Jennifer; grandchildren, Jamie, Amie and Emma, Matthew and Rebekah, sisters, Margaret, Martha and Dorothy, and brother Ian. Freddie's was a quiet, personal faith, and his unassuming presence will be greatly missed but we say "Well done, good and faithful servant".

Mrs Stewart assisted by Mrs Kettyles were thanked for their work preparing the meal. This was the first meeting of what is hoped will be a Men's Society within our group of parishes to encourage men become more involved within the life of the church and community.

Everyone very much enjoyed the evening and look forward to the possibility of further events.

Mothers' Union

On Tuesday, 17th October we were delighted to welcome Mrs. Betty Galloway who combined a Christian message with a craft demonstration. Betty spoke on the lovely biblical story about two sisters, Martha and Mary as found in Luke Chapter 10 verse 38. Martha was very hospitable and invited Jesus and his disciples into her home. While she was busy preparing food for her guests, Mary chose to listen to the teachings of Jesus over helping her sister. When Martha complained to Jesus he said "Martha, Martha you are worried and upset about many things, but only one thing is needed and Mary has chosen what is better and it will not be taken away from her". In a world filled with many distractions, the story of Martha and Mary could help us all set our own life in order. Following her lovely message, Betty demonstrated how she could turn a plain notepad and post-it pad into a special gift. She then gave each member a beautifully crafted gift to take home.

On Tuesday, 16th January our guest speaker will be Jean Corrigan, who will speak about her trip to Mongolia. Anyone who wishes to hear Jean will be most welcome.

Fundraising events in November

We had a very busy month of November with three very different events to raise funds for the church. The first event was a great evening of song and music with the Police Male Voice Choir and soloist Susan Greer. Our Fashion show proved a great success with not only the latest women's fashion on display in the Silverbirch Hotel, but also an auction followed by entertainment by Derrick Mehaffey. Thanks to all who volunteered their services for these two events especially Mrs Florrie Telford who undertook the bulk of the organising. Finally, in November (24th), the annual Craft Fair proved an enjoyable afternoon. Thanks to all those who bought table tops, those who prepared and served refreshments, those who donated things for sale and those who came willing to spend their money!

Advent Services

During the three Wednesday nights (5th, 12th, and 19th) leading up to Christmas there will be services in the Donacavey church at 8:00pm. This year we will look at the words of three Old Testament prophets who foretold the coming of the Messiah. All welcome.

The Best Christmas Ever

'A store owner was doing some last minute Christmas shopping with his young son when he saw another store owner with whom he had been friends for some time. The two of them exchanged greetings and spoke with each other about what a financially profitable season it had been for their respective stores.

The small boy overheard his father say, "This has been the best Christmas ever." As the store owners parted company, the father and son continued their shopping, but the father noticed his son had become very quiet. He inquired as to his son's silence, and his son replied, "Dad, you just told Mr. Johnson that this was the best Christmas ever."

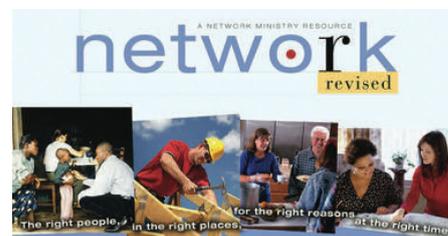

His dad replied, "I did, son. The economy is great, and people are really spending."

"O.K." the son replied, "It's just that I always thought the first Christmas was the best one."

As we prepare for Christmas and go around the shops for presents, let's not forget what it's all about. Remember that the best Christmas was the first one - when Jesus came into our world so that we could come into his Kingdom. The best gift comes not from people but from God.

'Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!' 2 Corinthians 9:15

Happy Christmas to all our Parishioners and Friends

Northern Ireland to Northern India

(By Frank Armstrong)

For the last eight years I have been travelling to Karnal which is located in Haryana Pradesh in Northern India. The local population of Karnal district is equivalent to the whole population of Northern Ireland. I have been working with a charity based in India, which is called 'Arpana', whose whole ethos is, "the giving of oneself". They have a hospital located at Madhuban – about 14 kilometres outside Karnal—which cares for those who are less fortunate in life. I got involved with the charity through a retired General Practitioner (GP) from Antrim, Dr Davinder Kapur MBE. Each year a number of my colleagues also join me in the adventure to teach, work and raise money for the medical equipment for the hospital. This year Graham Thompson, John Spratt and Shauna Loughran who are all paramedics from the Northern Ireland Ambulance Service travelled out with me to share their knowledge and skills with the staff at the hospital. You might think I'm being a tad melodramatic by using the term adventure, but if you have ever been to India you would know what I mean, as even trying to cross the road is an experience.

This year like most years we have been teaching the nurses, doctors, paramedics as well as the women's Self-Help Groups in emergency care at the hospital in Madhuban. What never ceases to amaze my colleagues and I is the immense enthusiasm and appreciation from all the participants for what they have been taught. Their hunger for knowledge and new skills is so inspirational—it can only but motivate us in our task. There is such a great need for training in pre-hospital and emergency medicine as it is an area which India greatly overlooks and the consequences are devastating.

The role we play goes beyond just teaching and over the last eight years the direct interventions of the teams from Northern Ireland have had a positive impact on numerous lives. This year there has been very heavy smog in the mornings, which has resulted in some horrendous road traffic collisions. As the hospital is located right on the side of the Grand Trunk road, which's runs from Delhi to Pakistan, they would get a lot of casualties from road traffic collisions. Unfortunately, there have been a number of seriously injured patients, and with the help and guidance from the team, they were effectively managed and transferred to specialised hospitals in Karnal.

Over the last two years we have ventured further north into Himachal Pradesh which forms part of the Himalayas. This is such a beautiful area with glorious mountains and it's easy to see God's hand in its creation. When I see these magnificent mountains I'm drawn to the words of Psalm 121 verse 1-2, "I lift my eyes to the mountains, where does my help come? My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth." No one could question their beauty and compared to Madhuban, it is so tranquil and the air so clean and fresh. It's a fantastic backdrop to any classroom. When looking at the photograph you will see a grey line that extends along the mountain on the left. This is a road cut into the mountain side. Once you have travelled on these roads, you could travel anywhere in the world. Arpana have two out stations in Himachal, one at Gajnoi, which is used for the education of rural workers and also at Bakrota in Dalhousie, which operates as a health clinic. This year Mark Anderson and Cherith Poots accompanied me and we taught women's Self -Help Groups, nurse's and local villagers in First Aid and also supplied some First Aid kits and External Automated Defibrillators to local health clinics.

Before I headed out to India in 2009, Dr Kapur told me that it was going to be the case of either I will fall in love with India, or, I am going to totally dislike it. Well, I have fallen in love with India and one can only put it down to the warmth and generosity of spirit that extends from all the family at Arpana to all who visit. It is immensely overwhelming the love that is poured upon us during our stay and I guess this is what Paul wrote in Galatians, "the only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love". Mahatma Gandhi once said, "be the change that you want to see in the world" and the Bible also teaches us in Philippians 2 verse 4 "do not merely look after your own interests, but also for the interest of others". I feel that God has led me to share the talents that he has blessed me with.

Templecarne Concert

This annual event was held on 19th October in the Methodist Youth Hall in Pettigo. It was a most enjoyable evening. The compère was Gary Wilson. We are grateful to him, to the many local artists and performers, to the musicians and technicians and to all who helped in whatever way. Thank you to our Methodist friends for the use of their hall. A special thanks to David and Hilda Johnston, who with help from others, organise this event year by year. This event draws great support from the local community. The amount raised from the concert was £1910 and €580.

Remembrance Sunday

Both in Muckross and Drumkeeran there was a good attendance at the annual Remembrance Services. In Muckross wreaths were laid by Stephen Loane and Bertie Keys. In Drumkeeran wreaths were laid by William Seaney and Bertie Keys. In a border area the annual Remembrance Services take on an extra significance, the remembrance of parishioners who lost their lives during the 'Troubles'. Each year bereaved family members who have moved out of the area many years ago, return for this act of remembrance. To them and to the whole parish community it brings back sad memories. My thanks to all who contributed with the readings and music at the services.

Christmas Shoe Box Appeal

The work of packing and sorting the Shoe Box appeal was well under way when the Magazine notes were being prepared, A generous tribute to Irene Boyd and her band of willing helpers for this marvellous annual effort on behalf of less fortunate children. From this effort children in poverty stricken countries will receive a gift for Christmas. And a big 'Thank You' to all, in and beyond the parish, who make this great effort year by year.

Kindfund

Our prayers are with Gillian Stevenson who has returned to Kenya to spend more time there helping with the work amongst children.

Harvest Thanksgiving

In Rockcorry Church, Revd Daryl Edwards from Cootehill Presbyterian Church was the special preacher and we were also delighted to have Dorothy Hawthorne as soloist and Audrey Doogan as organist for the occasion. As usual, our grateful thanks to all who helped in any way in preparation.

Farewell

On Sunday, 29th October, parishioners gathered together for a United Service in Aghabog Church where Revd. Margaret's ministry began over two years ago. On this occasion we were back in Aghabog to bid her a fond farewell. Warm and heartfelt tributes were paid to her as presentations were made from all branches of our group of parishes and also from the Sunday Schools. We thank her for her love, ministry and support. We are extremely sorry to lose her and wish her God's blessing and good health in her new sphere of work in Aghavea. Revd. Margaret's departure inevitably means changes for the parish. We extend a warm welcome to the Readers and Clergy who will be helping out in the immediate future. Mr C. Brownsmith and Mr. Abraham Storey will be responsible for the services of Morning Prayer and pastoral care while Revd. L. Capper, Canon Johnston and Dean Ferguson will be helping out with Holy Communion services. A full schedule of services, until end of the year, has been circulated to all parishioners.

Remembrance Service

There was a good attendance at the Annual Remembrance Service in Dartrey on Sunday 12th November. We extend our thanks to Abraham Storey for conducting the Service, to those who did the Scripture readings and to Killyfargue Pipe Band for leading the Parade to and from the church, Audrey Doogan, organist, and to Leslie Soden for playing the Pipers Lament, "Flowers of the Forest".

This will take place in Dartrey Church on Sunday, 17th December, at 3pm. Mr Brownsmith will be leading the service and schoolchildren will be taking part.

The annual Group Christmas party is in Rockcorry School on 16th December at 6.30pm.

Aghabog

Parish Group Service

A Parish Group service held in Aghabog Sunday 29th October was very well supported from the whole group as this coincided with a farewell service for the Revd. Margaret Pringle as she took leave in this group of parishes. Presentations were handed over to Revd Margaret from each parish and afterwards refreshments were served in the parish hall. Our thanks to all who brought food and helped in any way. We wish her well in her new parish. Illness

Remember In Our Prayers

We continue to remember in our prayers all who are unwell at home or in hospital at this time.

The Christmas Day Group service in Aghabog 10.00am conducted by Revd L Capper.

Children's Party

This year the annual party will be in Rockcorry school on Saturday 16th December.

Aughnamullen

Farewell

we said farewell to the Revd Margaret Pringle at a group service in Aghabog Church on Sunday 29th October and we were able to express our thanks to her for her ministry with us over the last two years and we wish her God's blessing in her new parish.

Memorial Service

On Sunday 22nd October we had a memorial service for the late Sir Richard Hanbury Tenison at which we welcomed visitors who had known him over the years and members of his family who took part in the service which was conducted by Revd Margaret Pringle. After the service all were invited to Lough Bawn for refreshments. Our sympathy to those in our parish who have lost friends and loved ones recently. The Annual Carol service will be held on Sunday 10th December at 3pm and will be conducted by Mr Abraham Storey, Diocesan Reader. All are welcome.

The Season of Advent

Advent is a time of impatient waiting, of holding our breath for what's waiting for us just around the corner. We're making preparations to celebrate Christmas Day, of course, but most importantly, Christians spend this time preparing and waiting for Christ to be born again into the world which so desperately waits for Him. We're not the first people who have longed for a different world – all through history people have waited, just as eagerly, for peace, hope, joy and love.

60+ Parishioners' Party

The Christmas Party will be held on Tuesday 12th December at 7.00pm. All those with a 'bus pass' are welcome!

Tuesday Club

Tuesday Club activities

Dean Hall opened the October meeting with scripture and prayer.

The speaker, craft teacher, Denise Kettle received a warm welcome. Denise told us the history of the poppy and then provided members with the materials to make a poppy.

Tuesday Club members listen to a speaker

Everyone received detailed instructions and help to make their poppy and enjoyed the finished result. A most welcome cup and tea and treats brought the meeting to a close.

The next meeting is on 28th November when Claire Holmes, Dietitian, is the speaker and will have information on 'Healthy Eating'. Don't forget the 60+ Christmas on 12th December in the Main Hall at 7.00pm. Please give your name to the office by Friday 8th December if you wish to attend.

prayers from the All Ireland Prayer Vigil 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence 2017. There will be a service in Lisbellaw Parish Church on Tuesday 28th November at 8.00pm. All members are encouraged to attend and are asked to bring items to donate to women's aid such as basic toiletries, nightwear, towels, slippers etc. They have also appealed for unwrapped Christmas gifts for teenage boys.

Our guest speaker was Noreen Little from Action and Outreach who gave us a detailed account of her work distributing blankets, fiddle muffs and fiddle blankets to local nursing homes, angel gowns, hats, blankets, bootees and cardigans to the neo-natal and maternity wards in the hospital. She had samples of some wonderful needlework. Everyone is encouraged to help with this worthwhile work. There is a special appeal for trauma teddies as stocks are low. Patterns are available from Sally Masterson, Branch Secretary.

Our branch was represented at Autumn Council in Dromore on 26th October when Revd Andrew Quill gave a moving sermon encouraging outreach in even the smallest way using our God given talents. The evening concluded with the mother's union prayer.

On 5th December the outing is to Ardhowen Theatre to see the musical "Singing in the Rain."

A very happy Christmas to all our members.

The New Year meeting is a service of Holy Communion celebrated by Dean Hall on Monday 8th January at 8pm. A date for your diary - prayer breakfast on 3rd March 2018.

The Shoebox Appeal

Thank you to all who took part and supported the Mothers' Union in the Shoe Box Appeal. Almost 200 shoeboxes have been sent off from our Parish to destitute children in Eastern Europe. These simple items/toys will transform the lives of many and probably the only Christmas present they will receive.

Season Greetings

The Cathedral Clergy and Diocesan Pastoral Assistant extend to all parishioners and readers good wishes for a Happy and Peaceful Christmas. May the power, and the peace, and the presence of Christ fill your life and your home now and in the year ahead!

Silence, Love and Practical Help.

Today has been one of those lovely autumn days that we have been waiting for. Bright sunshine, light winds, and paths underfoot are drying. Twice in recent days, I've heard mention of the concern about fodder this winter because of the wet weather, so today is a welcome change. The last of the leaves are still to fall from the purple beech tree outside my study window, and I am glad of the extra light. Birds are busy in the dry weather, searching out food in the leaf-fall, and visiting the bird table in the hope of a free meal.

When you read this, the season will probably be hurtling towards the day with the shortest hours of light, and the season of gaudy street lights and compulsory festive cheer. But for now, we are still in a season of remembering, a season of quiet dignity, and a time for thoughts of those who have gone before us. All Saints Day to Remembrance-tide is a season which has its own shape. It asks us to think of the Great Cloud Of Witnesses who have gone ahead us, and of those who made a great sacrifice in the cause of justice and freedom. For us, the Parish is privileged to be invited to take part in a solemn act of remembering at the Royal British Legion Hall. Later our uniformed organisations parade to Church, along with serving and former members of the forces, and this year St John's was filled to capacity by those attending Evening Prayer. It is a time which is very different from the busy reopening of ministries which characterises September, and the familiar round of the Harvest Thanksgiving. We look forward to the beginning of a new Church Year, as Advent approaches.

This year I am encouraging the parish to read Advent For Everyone, A Journey with the Apostles, written by Tom Wright. Available on special offer from the Real Life Bookshop in Enniskillen for £5.99, we will follow the daily reading and comments. Tom's writing is helpfully straightforward and plain.

It will follow on from the teaching series during August to November, based on St Paul's Letter to the Philippians, which has been so positive for us. That time also included the four Sunday evening services in September with the local Methodist and Presbyterian Churches, which were appreciated by so many.

I also have made an early November start on some reading for Advent, and can recommend to you Unearthly Beauty, by Magdalene Smith. It is a collection of writing which reflects on the life of some who have gone ahead of us. On the theme of Remembering, she recounts the life and purpose of some of the Saints, including familiar figures such as St Andrew, and St John the Apostle, along with some less well known to us. I have been very challenged to read about the example to Charles de Foucauld who lived in the 1800s and founded the 'Little' communities. Groups of disciples who were willing to live 'with' and not 'for' the poor, joining in the ordinary things of life, as a witness to Christ. His rule was to offer silence, love and practical help as a living example of the Gospel. In such a noisy age, who of us couldn't offer silence, love and practical help? Perhaps our brothers and sisters who have gone ahead of us, are able still to tell us something of the way to run in this modern age, as we go on with Christ.

Mothers' Union

The November meeting which was our Community Outreach was held in the Parish Hall. Following the opening hymn, Margaret Bothwell, Sheila Burke and Claire Millar led the readings and prayers set down in the All Ireland Prayer Vigil for 16 days of Activism against gender based violence.

Members then packed 39 hampers and toiletry gifts for distribution to the senior members of our church who are at home or in nursing homes enclosing a Christmas card from Mothers' Union.

Branch Leader Elvina Funston thanked all those who had contributed and helped at the Cake Sale on 28th October. The total amount raised was £545 which will be divided between the Worldwide Relief Fund and our Branch Funds.

Branch Leader Elvina Funston and Emily Kells attended the Training Day in Belfast in preparation for The Women's World Day of Prayer which we will be hosting in March 2018.

Elvina Funston, Sheila Burke and Emily Kells attended Autumn Council in Dromore Church on 26th October and attended the Training Day for leaders, treasurers and secretaries in Enniskillen on 18th November.

Activism against Gender Based Violence

A Prayer Vigil in support of 16 days of Activism against Gender Based Violence is being held in Lisbellaw Parish Church on Tuesday 28th November at 8pm. The speakers will be the P.S.N.I.

Instead of a retiring collection, each M.U. member has been asked to donate one item for use by Women's Aid Fermanagh. Carol Singing in the homes and Nursing Homes of house bound members of our Church has been planned for Monday 11th December and Tuesday 12th December. A Committee Meeting has been arranged for Wednesday 22nd December at 8pm in the Parish Hall

The meeting closed with the Mothers' Union and The Grace.

Remembrance Sunday

The annual Group Remembrance Service was held in the Parish Church on Sunday 12th November. We were pleased to have our Methodist and Presbyterian neighbours present in the congregation.

The Methodist Lay Pastor Mr Ian Graham took part and Mr Charles Crawford preached the sermon in the service at which over 200 were in attendance. Mrs Marina Elliott led a group of primary school children in the singing of "Bless the Lord, O my soul". The presence of the uniformed organisations Guides, Brownies, Rainbows and Beavers all contributed wonderfully to this solemn service.

Acts of Remembrance were also held in Sallaghy and Drummully on the Sunday prior to Remembrance Sunday (photos above and below).

Confirmation Class and TAG Group

The confirmation class and the TAG Group will combine for a Christmas Party on Sunday 3rd December at 7.00pm in The Church Hall, Newtownbutler

Everyone will be made most welcome at this Carol Service.

Sympathy

Willie Ebbitt of Bunn passed away peacefully in the Palliative Care Unit in Tyrone County Hospital, on Thursday 9th November 2017. The funeral in Galloon Parish Church on Saturday 11th November was conducted by the Rector. We extend our sincere condolences to the Ebbitt Family on the loss of a much loved brother and uncle.

Sallaghy Parish

“Songs of Praise”

On Sunday 29th October over 120 parishioners and friends of the group came together for a “Songs of Praise” Service in Sallaghy Parish Church when the theme of the service was “Music which moves you”. Parishioners in each of the three Group churches had an opportunity to submit their choice of favourite hymns. The top 10 hymns were sung in reverse order. The service opened with Hannah Frazer and Michael Smith on flutes accompanied by Jennifer Smith on the clavivova leading the singing of “As the Deer pants for the Water”. Members of Lisnaskea Silver Band provided the musical accompaniment for three hymns, namely “Guide me Oh Thou Great Jehovah”, “Praise my Soul, the King of Heaven” and “Lord, the light of your love is shining”. The Group choir sang “Here I am to worship” with Joyce Clingan singing some solo lines. There were several readings linked to the various hymns and these were read by Jacqueline O’Cuilleainain, Patricia Hutchinson, Valerie Crawford, Charles Crawford and Revd Anita. Three of the group organists, Joyce Clingan, May Leitch and Grace Robinson accompanied two hymns each. The finale to the service was the singing of the most popular hymn, “I the Lord of Sea and Sky. Mothers’ Union

The MU meeting in October was held in Slavin Parish Church. We were delighted to welcome Rosemary Barton MLA. She spoke of her work in the constituency and in Stormont, illustrated by a slide show. It was a very interesting evening and we thank Rosemary for making the journey down and sharing her experiences with us.

Remembrance Service

Sunday 12th November was the Remembrance Service in Garrison Church at 5pm. The service was conducted by the Rector. The Poppy wreath in memory of the lost in the First World War was laid at the memorial stone of Private Thomas Carson by Garrison parishioners. The other wreath in memory of those who lost their lives in Northern Ireland was laid at the plaque in memory of Mr Johnny Fletcher by Mr Clive Mc Kee accompanied by Mr Wesley Scott, members of the Regimental Association. Mr Robert Johnston read the first lesson. A lament was played by Mr Paul Barton on the bagpipes. Alan Gault read out the names of those who lost their lives. Tea followed the service in the church hall. The Rector proposed a vote of thanks to all involved particularly the Regimental Association for their presence which adds so much to this service each year. John McClure replied on behalf of the Regimental association and conveyed his thanks again to Revd Ngozi and to the ladies for providing the lovely supper.

The Launch of The 'Slavin Poetry Book

Audrey Owens, contributor to the book and soloist at the event; Revd. Ngozi Njoku, Rector of Garrison Group of Parishes and, Bishop John McDowell.

Councillor Alex Baird (Vice-Chairman Fermanagh and Omagh Council), Doreen Earls (member of Slavin Church), Vivienne Ferguson (author of the book) and John Maguire (Managing Director, Belleek Pottery) at the book launch.

Joe O'Loughlin (M.C. at the Book Launch), Vivienne Ferguson, Michelle Duffy (Artist, Camlake Canvas), Soinbhe Lally (Contributor to the book), Doreen Earls, Audrey Owens, Albert Cluff (Printer).

The Launch of The 'Slavin Poetry Book of Katherine C. Elliott' by Vivienne Ferguson took place in the Wark Hall, Belleek on Tuesday, 25th October by the Bishop of Clogher, the Right Revd John McDowell.

May Somerville, Jim Wilson, Maggie Reilly.

Slavin Church received funding from the Heritage Lottery Fund to erect a memorial stone to Katherine Elliott, the first choir mistress and organist of the church. Katherine, the daughter of Robert Williams Armstrong, a co-founder of Belleek Pottery, was a gifted artist, poet and musician. Born in London in 1850 she was educated in France and Germany and was fluent in a number of languages. She came to live in Belleek in 1857 when her father was involved with the Pottery. She became attracted to a very good looking local farmer, James Elliott and married him, in spite of her parents' disapproval. Times were hard in the late 1800s and Katherine struggled with manual work on a farm and with poverty.

Robin and Vivienne Ferguson with Ernie and Pauline Elliott (Blaney). Ernie is the only surviving grandson of Katherine Elliott.

The church at Slavin became a comfort to her and she trained an accomplished ladies choir; later raising money to buy an organ. Katherine's name was missing from the family headstone so a stone in her memory was dedicated in September this year.

Kiltyclogher Service of Thanksgiving- Wilfie Carson and family

Some poems written by Katherine have been preserved over the years by some of Katherine's grandchildren. These form part of the book. Four generations have contributed items for the book.

Katherine, her grand-daughter Lily McAllister (née Elliott), living in Cork, her great grand-daughter Soibhne Lally, from Rossnowlagh, and her great great-grand daughter Sharon Ferguson, daughter of Vivienne and Robin.

The book has been compiled by Vivienne Ferguson, married to Robin (Derrygonnelly), a great grandson of Katherine.

Audrey Ovens, a Slavin Parishioner, has also contributed poems and illustrations. Local artist Michelle Duffy, Camlake Canvas, has illustrated most of the poems with her drawings and paintings. The MC for the Launch evening was local historian Joe O'Loughlin who has also contributed to the book.

Revd Ngozi Njoku welcomed everyone. Audrey Ovens sang two pieces entitled 'Rejoice' and 'Pie Jesu.'

Mr. John Maguire, Managing Director of Belleek Pottery, gave his support for the book launch and was delighted that the book contains a photo of Belleek Pottery. Precentor. Noel Regan, a former minister of the Garrison Group of Parishes complimented Vivienne on her book, which he said was very well presented. He recalled the close involvement the parishes had with Belleek Pottery and John Maguire. One of the highlights of his ministry was the installation of a stained glass front window in Belleek Church, just after Slavin Church had been completely renovated. He urged everyone to be generous when purchasing as the book was worth more than the set price.

In his remarks launching the book, Bishop John thanked Vivienne for the enormous amount of work which she had put into producing a work of such varied content and with something that would appeal to a very broad range of people. He then talked a little about Katherine's early years in London and went on to set Katherine Elliott's poetry in its historical context, drawing particular attention to the poems about the Boer War and its significance for Ireland in a time of turmoil and revolution.

He talked also about the significance of Katherine's absolutely steadfast and straightforward faith which saw her through the many difficulties and sadnesses in her life.

Bishop John remarked that perhaps the saddest words in the whole book were that, following her marriage 'her father never spoke to her again.' However she remained resourceful, outward looking, practical and optimistic, as was evidenced by her constant stream of good works and community involvement. Vivienne presented Bishop John with a signed copy of her book and went on to thank all the contributors to the book especially Joe O' Loughlin, Soibhne Lally and Doreen Earls.

Audrey Ovens recited one of her own poems, 'Castlecaldwell' and two poems from the book.

To close the proceedings, Audrey sang 'Amazing Grace'.

The event was attended by Rosemary Barton MLA and Councillor Alex Baird, Vice-Chairman of Fermanagh and Omagh District Council. A vote of thanks was given by the Rector's Churchwarden Robert Ovens. He thanked everyone for attending especially Ernest McAllister and Pam O'Regan, great-grandchildren of Katherine. They made the journey from Cork on Tuesday and drove back home after the launch. Robert thanked Vivienne for her generosity in donating the proceeds of the book to Slavin Church. DVDs are available at a cost of £8 for anyone who missed the evening. The book costs £5 and can be obtained from any member of Slavin Select Vestry or by private messaging the Garrison Group of Parishes Facebook page.

Our Prayers and sympathy are extended to her children, Oscar, Helen, William and Phyllis. Also her grand-daughters, Laura, Avril and Clare, Mrs Thompson's brothers, Ivan and George and sister Phyllis and their families and all of the extended families.

A collection in excess of £1000 was received which will be given to SWAH, Struce House, Altnagelvin Hospital and Kiltyclogher church. Revd Ngozi conducted the service at which the choir sang and Audrey Ovens sang a solo. The family expressed their thanks to everyone for their generosity. Tea followed the service in the Community Centre.

Inishmacsaint Mothers' Union

Our October meeting was held in Derrygonnelly Orange Hall on Monday 23rd October when our speaker was Lesley Ward from PSNI. She spoke about protecting against scams - mail, door step and internet. We were joined by other parishioners for this meeting and it proved to be most interesting and informative. We look forward to singing members' favourite carols at our December meeting and then sampling some of the favourite recipes from our booklet. This booklet has been produced following a magnificent response to our request for members' favourite recipes in time for Christmas festivities.

In January the Mothers' Union plan to have a meal on Thursday 25th in the Killyhevlin Hotel.

(Buried in Derryvullen)

Our thoughts and prayers are with everyone who has been bereaved at this time and also those who are ill at home, in hospital or nursing homes or for some reason can't be with their loved ones over the Christmas season.

Remembrance

A large crowd attended this year's service of remembrance on what was a lovely crisp autumn morning. Representatives from all our youth organisations and security forces past and present took part in the parade and wreath laying. The Earl of Erne and Ken Funston read the lessons and hymns were led by our organist Karen and Lisnaskea Silver Band who along with Lisnaskea Accordion Band led the parade. Revd. Capper gave the address.

Thanks to all involved.

Holy Communion for Senior Citizens

These services have been held throughout the year in The Trinity Hall on the second Wednesday of each month and have proved very popular with some senior members of our parish who prefer the informal setting. These will continue in 2018 and we hope there will be a good attendance.

Mothers' Union

At our last meeting we were delighted to welcome our Diocesan President, Mrs Irene Boyd. Irene gave us a very inspiring and informative talk on the work being done by MU and our aims for the future. She answered a lot of our questions and left us feeling that as a branch working together we can make changes for the better in our parish and in the community. We thank Irene for coming to our meeting and we are grateful to her for fitting us into her very busy schedule. Some of our members attended the Training Day on Saturday 18th November and we look forward to hearing more from them. Sometimes we feel isolated in our branches so it will be good to share our experiences with others and hear theirs.

Our December meeting will be our Christmas dinner in Carrybridge Lakeside Lodge on Thursday 7th December at 1.00pm. We will be joined by other members of the congregation and friends. We are looking forward to having an enjoyable time. As we will not meet as a branch again until the New Year we hope our members and friends have a very Happy Christmas.

Pantry Appeal

As last year, we have decided to have this after Christmas and everyone is encouraged to bring along to church non-perishable food items. This will begin on Sunday 14th January and run through until the end of February. All of these items will be passed to Val for the food bank and will be much appreciated.

Parish Dinner

This is planned for The Archdale Centre on Friday 26th January with food being served by "Saddlers" and dancing to Doreen Crozier. A list will be going up in church for names so please keep the date free.

Our Christmas meal has been arranged for Tuesday 12th December in Mahon's Hotel, Irvinestown (please note change of date) where we will look forward to a visit from Santa.

Christmas Activities

The Christmas festivities begin early in Magheracross with a special service on December 3rd at 3:30pm in association with Mencap. This annual service has been well-attended over many years by families, adults and children and everyone is treated to refreshments afterwards.

On Friday 8th, the Village lights will be turned on and this will be followed immediately by the Parish Fair, Santa's Grotto and refreshments in the Archdale Hall.

Annual Carol Service

On Saturday 16th, following the game against Coleraine, Ballinamallard will host their annual carol service in the Stand with players and fans delivering the readings and a variety of brass players providing the music.

Sunday School Nativity Play

Sunday 17th at 11am is our Sunday School Nativity Play. The youngest parishioner usually plays the part of baby Jesus in the manger and, at time of writing, we're still waiting to see who will be cast!

Annual Christmas sit-out

The annual Christmas sit-out is planned for Wednesday 20th from 8am to 8pm. The Methodist and Parish clergy will be wrapped up warm and waiting to receive donations. This year the donations will be forwarded to Abaana Children's Choir (pictured top) who visited us during the year and the Air Ambulance Service.

Christmas Eve

Sunday 24th, Christmas Eve, is the day of Carol Services. The parish service begins at 10:30am with Ballinamallard Silver Band and the Methodist Carol Service will be at 7pm.

Midnight Communion Service

The Midnight Communion Service will begin at 11:15pm and finish shortly after midnight.

Christmas Day

On Christmas Day, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8:30am and 10am with a special welcome for children at 10am.

Sunday 31st

On Sunday 31st, worship will be as usual except that there will be no service at 7pm – there will be a Watchnight in the Methodist Church later in the evening.

Shopping Trolley

During the month of December, there will be a shopping trolley at the back of church to collect food items for the Enniskillen food bank. On December 10th, we will also be receiving gifts for the salvation Army/ Vincent de Paul Appeal.

Happy and Peaceful Christmas and New Year

We wish all our friends throughout the diocese a happy and peaceful Christmas and New Year.

Good News

The words the angel brought to the shepherds are important words for us to take hold of for today: Luke 2:10 And the angel said to them "Fear not, behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour who is Christ the Lord." That message of the Saviour has been present in Ardess Parish Church since the Baraka Fashion Night.

14th century and the work done outside last year, and the work inside this year will secure the presence of the building for the next century. But the church is not the building but it is the people who meet to worship God. It is the people gathering to worship God that make the church, as we come together to say thank you to God for all he has given us.

There is something very powerful when we come together to worship God and over Christmas we have a number of special services, in addition to our regular Sunday morning services (9.30am and 11.00am).

When we come to worship, the psalmist reminds us that we enter into the courts of God, right into his presence. The story of Christmas is of a baby that grew up to become the Saviour of the world, and died on a cross to fulfil the plan of God that Isaiah set out 500 years earlier. He came because of God's love for us and to show us the depth of God's love. We have a choice, to respond to God's love and live with Him or to live life our own way. Christmas brings a message of good news and a decision for each of us.... The choice is yours - God's way or My way?

Messy Harvest

Children and their parents joined together on Sunday, 15th October 2017 to make different harvest crafts (wreaths, sun catchers, scarecrow biscuits, light holders, vegetable printing etc). It definitely owned up to its name of 'messy'! Everyone joined together as Revd Philip spoke to us about the cross and how Jesus was willing to become 'messy' for us, so that we might be clean demonstrating by removing the messy inside of a pumpkin and replacing it with a candle being His light within us. We were then treated to hospitality with soup, rolls and hot dog.

In-Stitches

Sylvia Phillips, on behalf of In-Stitches, presenting hats, coats and blessing gowns to Mrs Eileen Simpson, Nursing Manager at the Royal Victoria Hospital Neonatal Unit for the benefit of the babies in the neonatal unit.

On Friday the 3rd November 2017, Sylvia Phillips, on behalf of In-Stitches, presented a number of items (hats, coats and blessing gowns) to Mrs Eileen Simpson. Mrs Simpson is the Nursing Manager at the Royal Victoria Hospital Neonatal Unit and these items will be used for the benefit of the babies in the neonatal unit.

Ardess Parish Auction

We had excellent support for our Parish Auction and wish to thank everyone who contributed for all the items, help in transporting items to and from the community centre, each of the stalls, the tea served throughout the day and the burger stall. We thank God that annually we get supported in this event and that it's always a great success.

Men's Night

We continued with our A.D. Kingdom and Empire cinema experience on Tuesday 24th October 2017 watching Episode 3 (The Spirit Arrives) and Episode 4 (The Wrath). This has been a great opportunity for our men to get together and enjoy each other's company with a few sweet treats!

Friends In The Afternoon

Our Harvest Lunch was held on Tuesday 24th October and was attended by approximately 70 people. The Parish Centre was beautifully decorated by the Committee who then helped serve (along with the help of Iris Irwin) the tasty stew made by Gillian McCutcheon. Thank you to all those who helped and Stephen Hey and Paddy O’Roirdan for the entertainment.

CDYC Youth Weekend

In October, as part of the wider diocesan group, some young people from CONNECT YF attended Autumn Soul Youth Weekend in Bangor. The theme for the weekend was ‘Breathe’ - exploring all that God wants to us to breathe in, so we can pour out and share the life that Christ offers to everyone.

The young people enjoyed hearing Jasper Rutherford share from the Bible about the person of Holy Spirit as well as personal stories of seeing the Holy Spirit at work in his everyday life. We were reminded that we receive the Holy Spirit when we are adopted as God’s children that we might know deep in our being that we are children of God and deeply loved by him (Romans 5:5). We must also then be continually filled with Spirit so that the fruits of his Spirit would overflow from our lives so that we might be effective in sharing God’s love with those around us. Breathe in, Breathe out!

The weekend also included worship, workshops, late night cafe and games venues, a dodgeball competition and a quick visit to Pixie Park. The young people appreciated the opportunity to get away for the weekend, enjoying fellowship with one another as well as being equipped to walk more closely with God.

January Week Of Prayer

Prayer is how the bible teaches that we are able to talk to God. It is to be just like any conversation that we would have but one thing we struggle with is understanding how God responds to us. The bible tells us that when we ask we receive and when we seek we find Matthew 7:7.

We will begin the New Year, from Monday 1st January 2017 to Sunday 7th January 2018, with a Week of Prayer. What better way could we begin the year than to spend time prayerfully seeking God to show us his plans for the year ahead.

Each day we will have services at the following times in addition to having space for personal prayer throughout the day:-
1.00pm Holy Communion
3.00pm Bible Study
8.00pm Worship & Prayer

New Year’s Resolution

We all love to make New Year resolutions to get us physically healthy, but what about adding a spiritual resolution this week as well. Over the Christmas period, we will be giving out a little booklet to encourage you to begin to read the bible in January. The booklet is called a “Spiritual Health check”, 16 Steps to a Thriving Christian Life. Do make sure you get your copy and make it your New Year’s resolution to grow in your relationship with God.

Posada

Posada is based on a South American tradition of getting ready for Christmas where families would hold posada parties in their houses and travel to each other's houses to remind them of the journey of Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem. Using some resources from Church Army and figures knitted by Mothers' Union we will do our own Posada as these figures go round houses in the parishes symbolising making room for Jesus at Christmas.

A note from the Rector

As we approach the season of Advent and Christmas in Rossorry we shall very soon be placing our illuminated star on the tower of the church. It was a key feature of our Christmas Tree Festival last year and acted as a great beacon of hope to those who passed by our church and grounds. The brightness of the star of course speaks of the star of Bethlehem marking the place where the Messiah was born and guiding the Magi who were seeking to worship him. We trust that our Rossorry star will act in a similar way and be an inspirational sign of hope to our community – that light overcomes the darkness and in a world which seems fragile and uncertain that good will ultimately overcome evil. May the star draw to Christ all those who are seeking his light and hope this Christmas.

We look forward to welcoming you to our seasonal services as we celebrate the coming of Word made flesh whom St John proclaims, 'in him was life, and the life was the light of all people' Home Communion for Christmas The clergy are happy to bring Holy Communion to our elderly parishioners and others in their homes who are unable to attend church. We have a list of parishioners who do receive in this way and if any others wish to be included please let the parish office know as soon as possible. We are also holding a service of Holy Communion for our older parishioners in the Parish Hall, to be followed by Christmas Afternoon Tea, on Sunday 3rd December at 3pm. Any who would like to come along are most welcome and again please let the office know.

Annual Remembrance Service

“We will remember them.”

The Annual Remembrance Service was held on Sunday 12th November, at Rossorry, at 11am. The uniformed organisations paraded to church with their flags and took part in the service based on material from the Royal College of Church Music. The service was taken by the Rector and Revd. Lindsey Farrell, assisted by the Parish Readers, Sarah Maguire and Nick Hambly. Two poems were read by Gerry O’ Callaghan. The Rector’s reflection was on the thought that, while we remember our list of dead as soldiers of the two wars, we should not lose sight of the fact that they were friends, neighbours and young parishioners of this church where we pray today, and the debt we owe them for our present day freedoms. The Act of Remembrance included the reading of the names of the deceased, laying of wreaths on behalf of the UDR Benevolent group, the Parish, the Scouts and the Guides, the Last Post and Reveille. It was a solemn and moving ceremony.

The wreath laying ceremony

ROSSORRY PARISH CHURCH 175th Anniversary (1841– 2016)

Dancing at ‘the Hooley’

Our Anniversary year has come to an end! The last event was a “Hooley”, held in the Parish Hall on 3rd November. A good crowd enjoyed a free night of barbecue and country dancing, as a way of thanking the parishioners for their practical help and support at all the events throughout the year.

What a year it has been – a balance of thanksgiving for the life and vibrancy of our parish and a mix of fundraising and just ‘for fun’ events.

At the end of the year, we have celebrated together as a Christian community and thanked God for the many blessings he has bestowed on Rossorry throughout our history.

We have laid the foundation for a Building Fund that will continue to maintain our beautiful Church and improve the physical surroundings for the benefit of our parishioners and visitors.

To help support the Parish Building Fund which is fundraising to refurbish the Parish Hall and provide enhanced meeting and hospitality facilities at the Stables, the Parish is currently running a Draw.

Presentation of Cheque

Alan Houston presenting cheques to Canon Ian Ellis of Rossorry Church and Janet Kilfedder from Hospice.

At the beginning of November, the Rector was delighted and honoured to receive a cheque on behalf of the parish from Alan Houston, being half of the proceeds of his recent Three Properties Challenge fund raiser. Alan has chosen to divide his total of £4260 equally between Rossorry Parish Church Building Fund and Fermanagh Hospice Care. This is a fantastic achievement and the sum raised simply amazing - thanks to the generosity of so many supporters both local and across the world. We offer our sincere thanks to Alan for this superb challenge now fully completed.

It is an informal group (nobody has to perform !!) which meets to pray for the parishioners, young and old, for the world, as well as other good intentions that arise. We finish with the fellowship of a cuppa and a chat.

God with us

There are many references in scripture to the fact that God is with us. These can be words from God himself for example in Genesis 12 God promises Abraham that he will be with him to show him a new land. When Joshua assumed leadership of the people of Israel God makes the same promise to him as he did to Moses. "As I was with Moses so I will be with you: I will never leave nor forsake you". (Joshua 1:5-9). He showed his presence to Moses as the people of Israel left Egypt by providing the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night. He promised Gideon he would be with him to defeat the midianites He made similar promises to King David and Solomon.

When Jesus came to earth he was called "Emmanuel, God with us", a fulfilment of Isaiah's prophecy. God demonstrated in a very real way he was with us by taking on our human flesh and living on earth. As Jesus returned to Heaven he made the promise never to leave us or forsake us (Matthew 28:20). The writer of Hebrews made a similar statement for God's promises.

Paul writing in Romans (8:31) says "if God be for us who can be against us." In other words no matter who or what seems against us, with God we have the majority.

Advent and Christmas remind us very clearly that God is for us, he wants the very best for us, our salvation. Christ was born the sinless son of God who went to the cross taking our sin upon himself. He died in place of us and on our behalf so that we may be forgiven and one day by faith in him alone be in Heaven. One day we can be in Heaven with Jesus in the place he has gone ahead of us to prepare for us. "I am going there to prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am". God promises to be with us everyday, everywhere for every situation or circumstance of your life. He has been here on earth and has promised by the cross and through our faith in Christ alone a way and a place for each of us to be with him one day when he calls or returns. May you all know God with you each day and most importantly may he live with you in your life each day by faith in Christ alone.

Jean, Deborah, Sarah, James and I join together in wishing you all God's blessing, presence and peace this Christmas and New Year.

CMJ-UK's "The Bible Comes To Life" Exhibition The Bible - Alive

Meet the people, see where they worshipped, visit their homes and eat and drink with them!

In 1891 a Jerusalem born Anglican clergyman named Samuel Schor had a vision to teach British Christians about the Bible in its original context. Using models, costumes, religious and cultural items to tell Bible stories his exhibition became legendary. In 1910 over 300,000 people visited a 9 day exhibition in London!

The Church's Ministry Among Jewish People (CMJ) continues with that vision. Today's exhibition includes many pieces from Samuel's original exhibition.

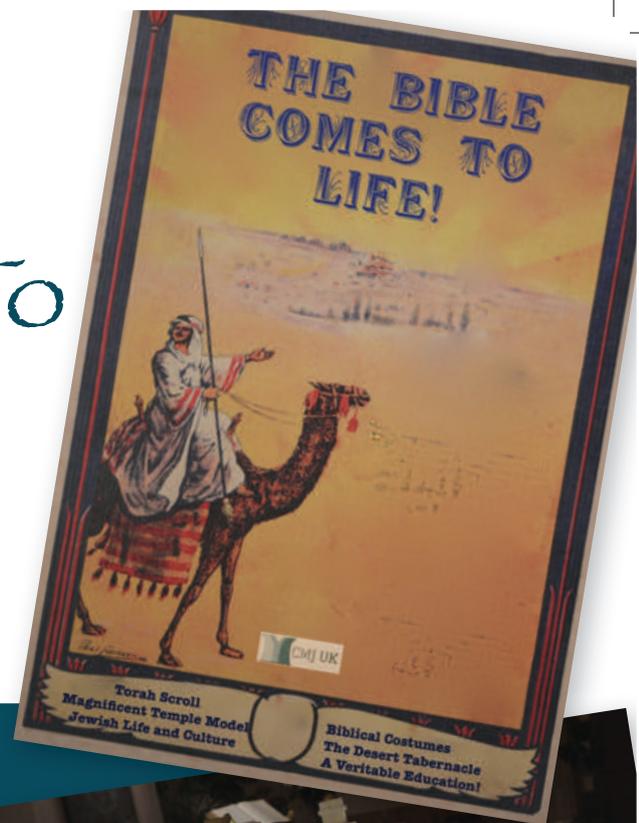

Explore the beautiful 3m x 2m replica of the Jerusalem Temple. See the desert Tabernacle, and the Ark of the Covenant (don't touch!!).

Meet the woman who lost her coin or the Roman centurion from the crucifixion story. Talk to a desert tribal leader and hear the testimony of Simeon, the old man who met with Jesus.

See a genuine Torah scroll, eat foods from the Biblical festivals, visit the nomad's tent and find out about the amazing properties of goat hair!

This unique exhibition returns again after 25 years to Enniskillen!

Hosted by the Clogher Diocesan Board of Mission in St Macartin's Cathedral Hall from Thursday 8th – Sunday 11th March 2018. Contact the Dean, The Very Rev Kenny Hall for further details.

MOTHERS' UNION

Autumn Council hears about special events in 130th anniversary year

The Clogher Diocesan Mothers' Union Autumn Council meeting took place on Thursday 26 October 2017 in Holy Trinity Parish Church, Dromore, where there were 52 members in attendance. The meeting opened with a service of Holy Communion led by the Revd Andrew Quill and Mrs Lorna Thompson was the organist. Revd Quill gave a very challenging reflection on the use of your 'Talents'. Lynn Winslow was also commissioned during the service for her role as Vice-President of the Action and Outreach Unit. After the service the ladies of Dromore provided a very tasty and beautifully served supper.

The Diocesan President Irene Boyd welcomed everyone to the meeting and invited the guest speaker, Mrs. June Butler, Diocesan President of Down and Dromore, to speak. June gave a very moving account of her time spent at the United Nations where she was representing Mothers' Union at the Women's Economic Empowerment in the Changing World of Work. She highlighted the vast inequalities in many countries, around the working environment and reward for women in work, and the differing values placed on women in society. In so many countries, women are the main workers for poor wages and are still the main carers for the family and the home. June also highlighted how little reference was made to the work of faith organizations in the work being done in developing countries. Geraldine Beattie thanked June for her interesting and challenging talk and presented her with a small gift.

The Diocesan President Irene Boyd thanked the Rector for conducting the service, the organist and the Select Vestry for the use of the Church and the hall and the members of Dromore Mothers' Union for providing a lovely supper.

Irene then outlined her activities since the Spring Council highlighting the many special events organised to celebrate 13 Decades of Love and service in Mothers' Union in Ireland.

Irene Boyd, Mothers' Union Diocesan President, Clogher Diocese; June Butler, Diocesan President, Down and Dromore and Geraldine Beattie, Branch Leader, Donacavey and Barr Mothers' Union, who presented a vote of thanks.

Fifteen members from Clogher who attended.

Mothers' Union Weekend 2017

This year the Mothers' Union All Ireland Women's Weekend was held in the Radisson Blu Hotel and Spa at Rosses Point, Sligo from 20th- 21st October. The weekend was organised by the Young Members Co-ordinators, Barbara Clarke and Mary Burke. 15 members from Clogher Diocese attended.

On the Friday night, 73 members from all 12 Dioceses gathered for a meal. After dinner the Conference Leader, Mary Good, Barbara Clarke and the keynote speaker, Alice Leadbeter organised entertainment.

On the Saturday morning after breakfast 30 more members came along for the day Conference. The Conference leader, Mary Good commenced the proceedings under the heading – 'Ireland's Got Talent'. After reading the Parable of the Talents from Matthew 25 she challenged those present to consider what their talents were and then went on to question them if they used them as God had intended. She informed the group that often fear prevented them from doing things and she encouraged them to face their fears and to get involved in church life and in the community.

After this the keynote speaker, Alice Leadbeter from Cambridge spoke about her life story. Alice is a mother of three boys and is a school teacher. After the birth of her third son she suffered from Post Natal Depression and she spoke with great feeling about how this changed her life and what she did to turn things around. She took up running and told the group how this helped her to concentrate on other things and it eventually led to her completing the London Marathon this year. She also made the ladies think about why they were members of Mothers' Union and after some discussion among the Clogher members these were some of the reasons:

- Their mother was a member
- Neighbour/friend asked them to join
- It was the done thing to join when you got married
- Attracted by the fellowship

Following this those present were entertained by Richard Mitchell, the Conductor of Sligo Gospel Choir along with Mabel, one of the choir members. The next activities included either making jewellery or taking part in Zumba. After lunch the All-Ireland President, Phyllis Grothier encouraged members to continue being effective members of Mothers' Union and to use their talents to promote Mothers' Union. In summing up Mary Good also encouraged everyone to continue to work on Life's Patchwork Quilt. Then it was time to go home after a great time of fellowship and learning.

THE RICH MAN GIVES TALENTS TO HIS SERVANTS

Read

READ – The Parable of the Talents (You can read this in Matthew chapter 25 verses 14-30)

Are you planning on giving a Christmas present to someone you love? We spend a lot of time trying to find gifts that we think people will like. We want them to enjoy what we've given them, and have chosen it especially for them. Imagine if they didn't bother to take it out of the wrapping. Or if they just left it lying there, unused. We would feel really disappointed, and maybe even feel cross with them. Imagine how God feels when he gives us with things and we don't use them as we should...

Jesus told a story about a rich man who was going on a long journey so he gave his servants some money (called 'talents') to look after for him. A talent was a huge amount of money in Bible times. The man gave one servant five talents, he gave two talents to another servant and to the third servant he gave one talent. The man left on his trip and each of the servants did something with the money that they had been given.

The man with the five talents used his money wisely and got five more. The man with the two talents also used his money wisely and he got two more talents. But the man with one talent took his talent and buried it in the ground to keep it safe. He didn't even try to do something with it.

When the master came back he wanted to know what his servants had done with his money. The first servant said, "You trusted me with five talents and I made five more!"

His master smiled and replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! I will put you in charge of lots of things."

Then the servant with the two talents came and said, "You trusted me with two talents and I made two more!"

His master smiled and replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! I will put you in charge of lots of things."

Then the servant who received the one talent came and told his master, "I know you work hard for your money, so I was afraid to lose any of it. I decided to bury it and keep it safe. Here is your one talent back."

The master was not happy and said, "You lazy servant! You could have at least taken the money to the bank and collected some interest from it."

He immediately took the talent away from the man and gave it to the first man who had used his talent to make more.

A talent in this story can also mean our skills or abilities - something special God gives to you. In the story Jesus meant that if you use your special skills God is happy and will give you more to keep doing these things you are good at. What can you do with this special skill to help others? If you have a chance to do something and don't because you want to watch tv, play on your ipad or because you just don't want to do anything, then God will take that valuable gift and give it someone who is doing something with their skills.

Thank You

When someone gives us a present, it is polite to say "thank you". Why not thank God for all the gifts he has given you - his son Jesus, and all the special talents you have.

How many times is the word TALENTS hidden in this gift?

Don't hide your talents - use them for God - start today! You could paint a house, or an owl, or the name Jesus - or maybe an idea of your own.

Young people walking in the footsteps of St Columbanus

Bangor Abbey is regarded as one of the most important of the early Northern Irish monastic sites, second only to Armagh. When we think of the monastery at Bangor, St Columbanus is the most obvious character who, springs to mind and perhaps it was fitting that it was in the present day Bangor Abbey church and halls that our diocesan young people stayed as they "retreated" for a weekend together.

The Abbey was their destination and the annual "Autumn Soul" youth weekend the objective. The theme of this year's weekend was entitled "Breathe" focusing on the work and role of the Holy Spirit. The keynote speaker for the weekend was Jasper Rutherford from Summer Madness. Dramas were added by the "Play It By Ear" company who were enjoyed so much last year at Anois. It was an early evening arrival at the Abbey armed with sleeping bags, airbeds and all the other necessary items that go with sleeping on church hall floors. This after a lengthy journey picking up others until the bus was full of excited young people and their luggage. To describe the accommodation as luxurious is not an overstatement in this context and many thanks are due to the Revd Ronnie Nesbitt for his welcome and kind considerations throughout the weekend. No sooner unpacked than it was time to take the short walk to the main stage venue in Hamilton Road Presbyterian Church to join hundreds of other youth groups for the open praise and talk. It is quite an experience to be present when this number of young people gathers in one place to worship. Having been introduced to this body and fellowshiped and learned together it was time to relax and enjoy the Late Night Extra programme for all in the adjoining church halls. This came as a suitable contrast and complement to the earlier evening. The late night extra included entertainment, chill out zone, snacks and drinks. All the activities were in one venue allowing access back and forth between rooms to experience all the different things that were on offer. All programmes finished at 12 midnight and it was excited voices and hearts that then made the journey back to the Abbey to try and settle for a night's sleep.

With heads buzzing from all that had happened in the last few hours it was difficult to sleep but eventually sleep came. With morning worship at the main stage at 9:30am breakfast was a fairly swift affair kindly provided and it was time to press out into the autumn coolness and the now familiar walk to Hamilton Road. Following morning worship there were six seminars on offer around the theme of "Breathe" for our young people to choose from. After lunch there were workshops to attend, which included Energy, Reflection, Creativity, Chill Out and Madness as interesting titles.

With such a busy programme it was good to have some downtime together as a group and visit the local food outlets across

Abbey Street from the halls; bringing back choices of food to eat together and chat. Before long it was time to tidy up and return for the final evening's worship and teaching and again to enjoy the Late Night Extras. It was much more tired bodies and minds that made their way back to the Abbey later. Hearts full of all that had been seen and heard and warmed by the new friends made. Sleep comes quickly in these circumstances and it's amazing how welcome a sleeping bag and camping mattress can be!

Refreshed by breakfast and a good night's sleep the final morning session's worship and talk had nearly become familiar.

There then came a highlight as the group gathered before lunch in the Abbey to reflect together on what the weekend had meant to each individual. Having reflected and expressed our prayerful thanks for all that had happened over the weekend it was time to make our way to the local Aurora Leisure centre and the Dodge Ball competition. This proved to be the perfect remedy for tired eyes and bodies as energy was expended and there was at time to laugh together.

The chance to have a shower and relax was very welcome followed by the closing worship and lunch. This had been a very new experience and one that would not be easily forgotten. As many slept on the journey home it was the sleep of the satisfied, the spent and the encouraged. "Breathe" had been literally that; an opportunity to take in so much and to allow it to enter open hearts and minds knowing that there would be a lasting effect from the wind of the Spirit in young hearts.

As always many, many thanks to all those leaders who gave of their time and energies to allow this retreat weekend to be made possible for our diocesan young people. With the words of Bishop John ringing in our ears that he wants to see parishes doing something for their young people what better way to begin than by travelling with them. To retreat together and to share this type of experience is demanding yes but far more inspiring as their passion and energy is infectious to all those who take the time to journey with them.

It was the journey of St Columbanus across the sea to Europe that brought the gospel of Christ to many. His was no easy quest nor for those who dared to join him. No more so is ours today but the rewards are just as eternal for us all.

Winter's Tale, an evening of music and verse reflecting the true meaning of Christmas

The candles will be twinkling to light the path to St. Salvator's Parish Church in Glaslough, Co. Monaghan, for the fourth year of The Winter's Tale this month. According to Revd Betty Thompson, it is not only the paths leading to the church which are decorated but the inside of the church is decorated with candlelight giving an added charm to this very historic and beautiful church building. The Winter's Tale is an evening of music and verse reflecting on the true meaning of the Christmas story.

"We live in a world of hype and commercialisation with less thought given to the real reason as to why and how we celebrate Christmas", she said. During the two evenings of Monday and Tuesday, 18th and 19th December, Revd Betty Thompson welcomes the guests and visitors and acts as compere for the evening. The musical director is Mrs. Ethne McCord who trains the Donagh Community choir and the Junior church choir. Gerard Toal will be the organist and pianist for the evening together with Ken Atkinson on violin, George Watson on Guitar and Diane Wright-Kendrick and Gareth Corrigan singing a duet. The Very Revd Raymond Thompson shares some of his favourite poems and stories. Everyone is invited to sing carols and then to conclude this part of the evening, everyone is invited to welcome a very special visitor who brings with him good wishes and treats. But the evening doesn't end until all the visitors and guests have made their way to the beautiful Castle Leslie where tea, coffee and mulled wine and mince pies are served. Transport is provided from the Church to the Castle. Revd Thompson said: "On occasions such as this friendships are renewed and fellowship shared. This occasion sets the scene for all to celebrate the real reason for the season the birth of Jesus Christ the Saviour of the world."

Kate Williams, Head of Finance in the Representative Church Body, gave a power point presentation on the new requirements for accounts and annual reporting in Northern Ireland.

Good practice when using social media and the internet

Important advice on good policy and practice using social media has been delivered to parish representatives in Enniskillen at one of six meetings held throughout Northern Ireland.

Organised by the Church of Ireland Board of Education, the meetings provided presentations that could be used by leaders for delivery to their children and young people to promote good practice when using technology.

The Church of Ireland's Child Protection Officer, Margaret Yarr spoke on the use of social media with slides on social media usage, how leaders should behave, mobile phones, texting, phone cameras and good practice when allowing external photographers visit groups.

In a separate presentation Inspector Elaine McCormill from the PSNI, outlined details of a new project, "Virtual Reality" about working with children and young people.

Inspector McCormill, in a hard-hitting message, discussed aspects such as privacy, cyber-bullying, gaming, taking selfies and webcams.

Safeguarding Board for NI has produced a guidance leaflet for faith-based groups. It contains many good points for organisations working with young people. For example, the social networking site profile must be password-protected and held by at least three leaders of the organisation, the site should be monitored by a designated supervisor, the site should be kept 'Private' for only permitted members or friends and the use of personal addresses and telephone numbers should be avoided.

Leaders should not 'Friend' or 'Follow' children or young people on social media, leaders should not network with members of their group via closed (one-to-one) chat rooms such as Facebook Messenger or Whatsapp but through 'Group Chats.'

Any emails sent to young people via the site must be sent to at least one other leader and any communicating with children or young people in their group via email should be avoided late at night.

Signing off a post should not be done in a way that should be misconstrued by the recipient but simply signed by their name.

The running Archdeacon who has clocked up 100 parkruns

The Archdeacon of Clogher Diocese, the Venerable Brian Harper, who is Rector of Magheracross Parish in Ballinamallard, has completed his 100th parkrun.

A notable achievement, across the country, this milestone is celebrated with a T-shirt and cake.

Brian started running for fun three years ago at the age of 53, when he felt an urge to run in Central Park whilst on holiday in New York. A few days later he ran on Washington Mall and has continued running since then, having completed 10K runs in Clabby, Irvinestown, Enniskillen and the Mersey Tunnel, the Great South Run(10 miles in Portsmouth) and the Liverpool Half Marathon.

"The only running I did in my early life was at school and then it was cross-country. In reality we were sent out the school gate on a route and were expected back in an hour – the route sometimes passed our house so I just nipped in home for an hour instead!" he said.

The main part of his running programme has been the Enniskillen parkrun – a 5K route at the Lakeland Forum, which he usually completes in 28 minutes.

"This is a highlight every week – not just the running but also meeting up with friends and occasionally marshalling with cowbells and encouraging other runners. There is such a huge variety of people from speedy front runners to those who run and walk and chat. Parents run with children and the age range can be from 8-88 years or beyond. Some run with babies in buggies and others with dogs. It's not about racing – it's just about challenging yourself to keep going," he explained.

Brian and his wife, Heather, who joins him on the runs have also taken part in other parkrun events in Portrush, Dublin, Belfast, Omagh, Armagh and a variety of locations throughout England. Brian's family have also joined parkrun. His wife, Heather, has completed over 60 runs. Their eldest son, Jonathan, runs in Belfast, the youngest son, Samuel runs in Southampton Common, and daughter Elizabeth runs in Widnes Park. All the family ran together in Enniskillen in September to mark Heather's 60th birthday last month.

"Usually, it's not about reaching the end but just about getting to the bend, the next tree – it's one step at a time. Sometimes, it is about emptying the mind and focussing only on the running but often the runs can be dedicated to praying for someone in need or in memory of someone – for example, I ran the Liverpool half-marathon several days after my father-in-law died and did so with him in mind."

Running on Saturday, 11th November, Archdeacon Harper said he was thinking of his great-uncles who died at the Somme and the lives that were impacted tragically in Enniskillen 30 years ago.

"My wife and daughter have dedicated their running to Alzheimers UK as dementia has affected several close relatives, including Heather's mother. Elizabeth is taking sponsorship for this charity when she runs the London Marathon next April."

"I vowed as a student that I would never even run for a bus. I never thought I would be running every Saturday morning in my mid-fifties!" he added.

The President of Ireland, Michael D Higgins, is shown around Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Errislannan, by the Very Revd Stan Evans

The President of Ireland, Michael D Higgins, has paid a visit to Holy Trinity Anglican Church on the Errislannan peninsula in Connemara, County Galway, to see the €70,000 (Euro, approximately £62,800 GBP) damage caused by vandals on a wrecking spree.

The Church was built by the Revd Richard Wall on land belonging to Errislannan Manor, which he acquired in 1850. But with the diminishing size of the estate – and its population – it was decided to demolish it in 1957. But four years later it was rescued by the Friends of St Flannan's. It is now used for services in July and August to cater for the many visitors to the beautiful peninsula. But last month, vandals ransacked the church causing tens-of-thousands of Euros worth of damage. The cost of repairing the church has been estimated at €70,000. A crowd-funding campaign has already raised nearly €25,000.

The Diocese of Tuam said that the visit by President Higgins was “a marvellous encouragement” to parishioners, neighbours and friends of the church, who “are still coming to terms with the hurt of finding their church broken and battered.” The President – referred to in Ireland as Uachtarán na hÉireann – was guided through the church by Mr Evans, accompanied by the Cathaoirleach – or chair – of the local Galway County Council, Eileen Manion. Together they examined the interior of Holy Trinity in its present state which, “far from being restored, is now at least in a less chaotic condition than it was a fortnight ago,” the diocese said.

New Open Learning Course in 2018 for Ordained Local Ministry

The Church of Ireland, along with the Methodist Church in Ireland, has been developing a course of training for those who wish to offer themselves for service as an ordained local minister.

Training for ordained local ministry (OLM) is now due to begin in September 2018 and applications for the training next September should be submitted to Diocesan Directors of Ordinands by the end of January 2018 (at the latest). An ordained local minister will not be an incumbent of a parish but will be someone who can exercise some leadership role within a local congregation – the nature of their deployment may vary from diocese to diocese.

The underlying philosophy of the open learning course is that it will be integrated so that the development of learning and understanding takes place alongside the honing of practical ministerial skills and continuing spiritual formation. There will be a blended form of learning with the use of lectures, tutorials, workshops, on-line learning and self-study. It will be accessible to OLM training but also to ministerial training for the Methodist Church in Ireland and to a wide range of other users. It is hoped too that future modules will be developed for the training of specialist areas of ministry such as pioneer ministry and chaplaincies.

It will be a flexible Open Learning Certificate Course provided through Queen's University, Belfast. Teaching may be local, which might mean diocesan or inter-diocesan depending on location and numbers, with central input.

Five modules may be undertaken per year in Years 1 and 2, with a further two modules in Year 3. OLM training will last two years but those who have undertaken the Foundation or Readers' Course will be given an exemption for two modules enabling them to be ordained deacon after one year. Training will continue beyond ordination as a deacon with the aim that all students will successfully complete the necessary modules to gain the Open Learning Certificate.

The modules being put together for September 2018 are Biblical Studies, Theological Reflection, Worship and Preaching 1, Introduction to Pastoral Skills, and Church History. Staff from both the Church of Ireland Theological Institute (CITI) and Edgehill College are involved in this module preparation.

The bishops have put together a Selection Process with Criteria for OLM. Central to it is a sense of God's call. Those applying must be baptised and confirmed members of the Church of Ireland with a sense of their vocation to this particular ministry; a vocation which in the first instance may have been locally identified. Their personal commitment, spirituality, character, leadership potential and flexibility will be assessed during the selection process. Selection itself will be undertaken in each diocese to reflect the local or diocesan nature of this ministry. Those wishing to pursue OLM should speak to their Diocesan Director of Ordinands.

Protect religious sites in Jerusalem: Archbishop Welby

The Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby has echoed Pope Francis' call for the "Status Quo" agreement over religious sites in Jerusalem to be protected.

After meeting the Greek Orthodox Patriarch of Jerusalem, Theophilos III, at Lambeth Palace Archbishop Justin said: "I join other Church Leaders in calling for all parties to uphold the Status Quo and resist weakening it. I believe that a continued Christian presence in the Holy Land is of paramount importance."

A Bill before the Knesset, the Israeli Parliament, which would restrict the right of churches to deal independently with their land has been signed by 40 Knesset members.

In re-stating his support for Christian communities throughout Israel, the Palestinian Territories, and across the Middle East, Archbishop Justin asserted that Jerusalem must remain a place where people of all faiths can live and thrive together. He had visited the region in May.

Caribbean churches prepare for Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The 2018 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, which traditionally takes place in the northern hemisphere each January, has been prepared by the churches of the Caribbean.

The annual event traditionally takes place between the feast of St Peter on 18 January, and the feast of St Paul on 25 January. Next year's theme is "Your right hand, O Lord, glorious in power". Following the usual pattern, the World Council of Churches (WCC) and the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity (PCPCU) asked churches in a region to prepare the material – this time the Caribbean – before it was submitted to an international editorial team of WCC and Roman Catholic representatives to refine the text to ensure that it can be prayed throughout the world, and to link it with the search for the visible unity of the church. The completed text, published jointly by the WCC and the PCPCU, is now available in English and French on the WCC website.

Historic agreement between Anglican and Oriental Orthodox churches

Theologians from the Anglican Communion and Oriental Orthodox Churches have signed an historic agreement on the Holy Spirit. The Agreed Statement on the Procession and Work of the Holy Spirit was signed at the end of a week of discussions by the Anglican Oriental-Orthodox International Commission (AOOIC) in Dublin.

This year, the Commission members finalised the text of both sections of the combined Agreed Statement on the Procession and Work of the Holy Spirit, which was then signed by the co-chairs; the Church in Wales' Bishop of St Asaph, Gregory Cameron, and the Coptic Orthodox Church's Metropolitan Bishop of Damiette, during a special choral evensong at the Dublin's Christ Church Cathedral.

The Archbishop of Dublin, Dr Michael Jackson, is a member of AOOIC and acted as host for the meeting. In a sermon during the special evensong, he said that members of AOOIC had "worked together as two families who have become one family."
